

How to Write a Review

We have received many encouraging comments and testimonials about Connecting the Dots: A Handbook of Bible Prophecy, but not many reviews have been written yet. If you would be willing to write a review for the book, we would appreciate it very much. Most people won't buy a book that has not been reviewed. Here are steps you could take to place a review on Amazon and/or the other online booksellers. Your opinions are important, and your review may be short or long. Thank you!

Amazon

You must have an account with Amazon.com and have purchased something (not necessarily our book).

Start on the Amazon.com page at

<http://www.amazon.com/>

Do a search for "Ron Graff."

This takes you to a page that will list "Connecting the Dots."

Click on either the Paperback or the Kindle version.

On the product page, click the "Like" icon (You did like it, didn't you?)

You will be asked to sign in. Click the "sign in" link.

If you are already an Amazon customer, sign in with your email address and password.

Click the "Sign in using our secure server" button.

Fill out the required fields on the Registration page.

Save your password in a secure place where you can retrieve it.

Click the "Continue" button.

Then click the "Review" link

Fill out the text boxes for Title of your review, the review itself, and tags (keywords)

At the bottom click "Preview."

If the preview looks good, click "Publish."

Barnes and Noble
